Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Our Sanctuary Candle in Church burns in prayer to honor all law enforcement officers, first responders, and essential frontline workers.

First Banns

The following couple feels God's call to the vocation of marriage:

Paula Schroth and John Corcoran.

As we joyfully proclaim their Banns, may we support them and all the people of our Parish by our prayers, and by the example we give them as we live with commitment our own vocations.

 Life is short, live it. Love is rare, grab it. Anger is bad, dump it. Fear is awful, face it. Memories are sweet, cherish them."

OPEN WIDE OUR HEARTS: THE ENDURING CALL TO LOVE

“Racism comes in many forms. It can be seen in deliberate, sinful acts. In recent times, we have seen bold expressions of racism by some groups as well as individuals. The re-appearance of symbols of hatred, such as nooses and swastikas in public spaces, is a tragic indicator of rising racial and ethnic animus. All too often, Hispanic and African Americans face discrimination in hiring, housing, educational opportunities, and incarceration. Racial profiling frequently targets Hispanics for selective immigration enforcement practices, and African Americans for suspected criminal activity. There is also growing fear and harassment of persons from majority Muslim countries. Extreme nationalist ideologies are feeding the American public discourse with xenophobic rhetoric that instigates fear against foreigners, immigrants, and refugees. Finally, too often racism comes in the form of the sin of omission, when individuals, communities, and even churches remain silent and fail to act against racial injustice when it is encountered.”

BREAK THE CYCLE OF POVERTY....

...Support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development

Next weekend, we will be taking up a collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. CCHD addresses the root causes of poverty in America by supporting community-controlled, self-help organizations of low-income people. There are 40 million people in the United States living in poverty. Here, in our Diocese, four life-changing community organizations have been approved for major CCHD national grants. They include a farmworker organization, a workers' center, a land trust of low-income people becoming homeowners in inner city Rochester, and a refugee organization empowering their members to know their rights as tenants. In addition 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund smaller, local antipoverty projects. By supporting this collection, you are giving people on the margins a hand up, not a handout.

The Second collection next weekend will be for CCHD, write CCHD in the memo line of your check. Please be generous. For more information about the CCHD visit www.usccb.org/ccchd/collection.

Is the pandemic or current political climate only making it worse? Have you experienced a major life event (loss of job, death of a loved one) and don't know how to talk to your spouse about it?

Retrouvaille has helped thousands of couples through difficult times in their marriages. ## ONE DAY RETREAT AT NOTRE DAME

In these uncertain days why not give yourself an opportunity to converse with God in order to revitalize your life and heart. In place of the normally scheduled fall retreats, Notre Dame is offering single retreat days in silence and reflection entitled "Desert Day." There are 12 dates to choose from between mid-September through the beginning of November. Attendance is limited to 15 people each day. Allow yourself time to recover emotional balance, interior unity, inner balance and peace of soul. Notre Dame will give you the time, space and materials...all you need to do is come with a willing heart and an open mind. For specifics and to register visit: www.notredameretreat.org.

SHOULD I STAY OR SHOULD I GO?

Life is not always easy on us and it can be hard to figure out the next step to take in our journey. We can even become immobilized by indecisiveness and fear about making the wrong move or choosing an incorrect path. I think of the song, "Should I stay, or Should I Go" as a mantra for many times in my life. Should I stay in this house, this job, or this car? Should I go here or there? When those times of decision surface, I usually turn to my wife, my friends, or even my children. Talking it out can help, and their perspectives give me more data to consider. When I lean on others to help me make a decision, it helps me become more confident in my choices.

Discerning the will of God is not easy either. Rarely do we understand God's calling clearly at first. God's calling is always more easily discerned within a community of faithful disciples. Our stewardship way of life can suffer greatly if we refuse to allow others to assist us in the process of discernment. What gifts or talents are needed for the tasks at hand? Where do I fit best into God's plan? Where is God leading me? No one should have to decide the answers to these questions alone. We need to always lean on the Body of Christ to help us see the path that God has laid before us. Without a little help along the journey, over time we might find ourselves stuck in the same place where we started.
