DEDICATION OF THE BASILICAS OF ST. PETER AND ST. PAUL

The Vatican Church, dedicated in honor of St. Peter, is the second patriarchal church at Rome, and in it reposes one half of the precious remains of the bodies of SS. Peter and Paul. The tombs of the great conquerors and lords of the world have been long since destroyed and forgotten; but those of the martyrs are glorious by the veneration which the faithful pay to their memory.

The body of St. Peter is said to have been buried immediately after his martyrdom, upon this spot, on the Vatican hill, which was then without the walls and near the suburb inhabited by the Jews. The remains of this apostle were removed hence into the cemetery of Calixtus, but brought back to the Vatican. Those of St. Paul were deposited on the Ostian Way, where his church now stands. The tombs of the two princes of the apostles, from the beginning, were visited by Christians with extraordinary devotion above those of other martyrs. Caius, the learned and eloquent priest of Rome, in 210, in his dialogue with Proclus the Montanist, speaks thus of them: "I can show you the trophies of the apostles. For, whether you go to the Vatican hill, or to the Ostian road, you will meet with the monuments of them who by their preaching and miracles founded this church."

"We are even then," the lady said. "So did those ants you promised me you had driven out of my house forever."

BROTHER, CAN YOU SPARE A COAT?

St. Leo Social Justice Committee is sponsoring a "Coat Drive" to aid and welcome incoming refugees from Afghanistan the weekends of November 13/14 and 20/21. Fifty-seven refugees have already arrived in the Rochester area with a total of 200 expected in the near future...many arrive in need and ill-prepared for the upcoming winter weather.

Bins for both "NEW" and "GENTLY USED" coats will be in the Parish Life Center. Coats for men, women and children are needed so please pick up an item the next time you are out shopping...and search those closets! While primarily focusing on coats, contributions of hats, gloves and mittens are also welcomed and appreciated.

If unable to contribute any clothing but you wish to help, monetary donations can be made. Place your donation in an envelope marked "Coat Drive" and placed in the collection box. Checks should be made out to St. Leo Church with "Coat Drive" in the memo field.

ADOPT-A-FAMILY IS NOW SHARE THE JOY!

Adopt-A-Family is now Share the Joy! Same program, same joy, new name! Once again, a spirit of kindness comes to the Rochester area, bringing holiday good wishes to those who need it the most. This year, donors can support families who otherwise would not have a holiday through Catholic Family Center's Share the Joy program. Hopefully, you will join others once again to help make the holidays brighter for all of our clients! In 2020, over 250 donors and dozens of schools and companies made dreams come true for nearly 1,000 people in Rochester. Clothing, Bikes, Books, Balls and Barbies were assembled one family at a time, and by the van load, for many families and individuals in need. Countless others gave Single gifts of Joy through our Amazon wish list. It was an amazing outpouring of generosity by our Rochester community. Make the holidays very merry for some of our most vulnerable families, including hundreds of children. To learn more about this program go to: https://www.cfcrochester.org/donate/share-the-joy.

A Prayer to Be Open to God's Will
Good and gracious God, I know that life can be unpredictable.
Sometimes I know what is good and right, but I don't have the courage to do it.
Sometimes I am so busy with my own affairs, I forget to see the needs of people in front of me.
Sometimes I am set in my own ways, and I resist growing and learning.
Help me, Lord, to be open to Your will. When You prompt me to do the right thing, give me the courage to do it.
When those around me need my help, give me Your heart to love them.
When I'm stuck in my own ways, give me the grace to grow closer to You every day.
